

Terry Taylor has been teaching IAAO courses the past 7 or 8 years. He successfully completed the IAAO Instructor Training Workshop in 2012.

Since certified as an IN-State Instructor with IAAO, Terry has taught in three of the largest cities in Florida - Miami, West Palm Beach, and Orlando. He has taught course 101, Fundamentals of Real Property Appraisal, Course 102 Income Approach to Valuation, and Course 201 Appraisal of Land. Terry is qualified to teach all Courses required by the Florida Department of Revenue's designation program. "Certified Florida Evaluator", including advanced mass appraisal courses.

Terry is a Professional Designation Advisor with the FL Chapter of IAAO Professional Designation Committee and is a member of the IAAO Member Recognition Committee. Active with IAAO, Terry moderates educational seminars at IAAO's national conferences as well.

Terry holds IAAO's professional designation, Residential Evaluation Specialist and has written and submitted a Narrative Commercial Demonstration Appraisal report required for the CAE designation.

With close to 25 years of experience, Terry worked 15 years in Orange County Florida and is currently the Real Estate Manager for Saint Lucie County Florida where he specializes in Agricultural and Commercial Properties.